

THEME FOR THE WEEK

Problem Solving

What does this mean to Irvine Royal Academy?

We don't give up at the first hurdle – we persevere until we can find a solution. Often we work together with others in our school community to solve problems and ensure success.

We can put in place sufficient steps to overcome problems with a relentless focus on the positive final outcome.

